77kg of plastic material removed from cow's stomach

Vadodara/ Anand: Veterinarians in Anand were in for a shock when they found ice cream cups, spoons and plastic bags weighing 77 kg inside a cow's stomach.

The plastic waste was removed after two-and-a-half-hour long surgery. A local non-governmental organisation had brought the sick cow to the veterinary hospital in Anand. "When we operated upon the cow, our team removed 77 kg of plastic waste. The waste included ice cream cups, spoons and other plastic waste that people simply dump on the roadside or throw away after consuming their meals," Dr Pinesh Parikh, professor and head of the Department of Veterinary and Radiology at Veterinary college affiliated to K. J. Somaiya University in Anand. "Eventually, the digestion power reduces, and the animal becomes sick. It starts affecting their health and at times they also die because of the plastic waste," he said. The veterinary hospital gets 3 to 4 cases every week of stray cows which fall sick after consuming plastic waste from roadside garbage dumps or in the open. "Each time, the waste varies from 10 kg to even 55-60 kg. We have even come across cases where cows have accidentally consumed plastic ropes that people usually throw away or dump on the roadside," he said. Parikh said that the stray cattle often accidentally consume plastic which enters their stomach because of which the cattle develops problem of indigestion.

Six Vadodara cops win 16 medals in state athletics meet

LinkedIn launches in Hindi

Ahmedabad, LinkedIn, the world's largest professional network, today marked a new milestone with the launch of Hindi, the first Indian regional language on LinkedIn, with the goal to support 600 million Hindi language speakers globally. With this launch, LinkedIn aims to break down language barriers, providing greater access to professional and networking opportunities to Hindi speakers in India and around the world. With the launch of Hindi, LinkedIn now supports 25 languages globally. Starting today, as part of the Phase 1 roll-out of LinkedIn in Hindi, members will be able to access their feed, profile, jobs, messaging, and create content in Hindi on desktop, and on their Android and iOS phones. As the next step, LinkedIn will work towards widening the range of job opportunities available for Hindi speaking professionals across industries, including more banking and government jobs. The platform will also continue to add more Hindi publishers and creators in the coming weeks to boost member engagement and conversations in Hindi. (20-4)

Mines awards UltraTech 5 Star rating for sustainable mine management

Ahmedabad, Fifteen of UltraTech Cement's Limestone mines have been awarded a five-star rating for sustainable mine management, by the Ministry of Mines and Indian Bureau of Mines. The five-star certificates were given by ShriPradh Joshi, Hon'ble Union Minister of Mines at a recently held ceremony along with the National Conclave on Mines & Minerals in New Delhi. Four of UltraTech's mines in Gujarat were awarded a five-star rating. These include one mine each of Jafrabad Cement Works unit and Gujarat Cement Works unit both located near Amreli and two mines of Sewagram Cement Works unit located near Kutaj. Jafrabad Cement Works, Gujarat Cement Works and Sewagram Cement Works are integrated cement manufacturing units of UltraTech Cement. The award was given for last three years (2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20), with a total of 30 such 5 Star rating awards. This is the highest number of five-starratings awarded to any company in India for all major minerals such as Bauxite, Copper, Iron, Lead, Manganese, Lead & Zinc and Limestone. Conceptualised by the Ministry of Mines, the Star ratings are based on adoption of best practices for exhaustive and universal implementation of sustainable development framework in mining. A five-star rating, highest in the rating scheme, is given to mines which performed best on parameters such as scientific and efficient mining, compliance of approval, modernisation, green waste mining, environment protection, steps taken for progressive and final mine closure, green energy sourcing, land, adoption of international standards, local employment, social and welfare programmes, resettlement and other positive social impacts. Within a short span of 12 months "Central Star" has earned the reputation of being "Most trustworthy, honest, reliable and transparent" dealership of the brand Mercedes-Benz. This philosophy flows from its promoter Mr. K.S Cheema and his family. (1-7)

Builder told to return advance for not giving shop's possession

Vadodara: He had booked a shop on Waghadia Road for Rs 2 crore in 2016. But when the builder didn't give him possession of the shop in time, Shailesh Bhatia, a resident of Dahod, approached the consumer court that has ordered the builder to return him the booking amount with interest. Bhatia had booked a shop in Krishna Shi Scheme floated by Harsh Developers and paid Rs 5 lakh. The builder promised possession of the shop by September 2018. "But the builder hadn't started the construction and couldn't give possession on time. Bhatia kept visiting the city frequently to find out when he could get the shop's possession," said P V Moorjani, managing trustee, Jagrut Nagrik Grahak Mandal. "Bhatia then asked the builder to return the advance he had paid. In 2018, the builder gave a cheque of Rs 5 lakh to Bhatia but it couldn't be encashed due to lack of bank balance. Bhatia got Rs 1 lakh from the builder but Rs four lakh were still due. So, he approached the consumer forum," Moorjani told TOI. "No one from Harsh Developers turned up at the consumer forum for 30 months following which the court gave an order. The consumer forum has ordered Jagrut Mail, owner of Harsh Developer and landowner Pratapsinh Gohil to return Rs four lakh with 9 per cent interest and another nine per cent interest on Rs five lakh between November 2016 and October 2018," Moorjani added. The court has also asked the duo to pay Rs 5,000 towards mental harassment and Rs 5,000 for the complainant's cost. The builder promised possession of the shop by September 2018. "But the builder hadn't started the construction and couldn't give possession on time."

Indian students win 177 prestigious Cambridge International awards

Ahmedabad, Cambridge International has announced the winners of its prestigious Outstanding Cambridge Learner Awards for 2020-21. This year, 150 Indian students have scooped 177 of the highly sought-after Outstanding Cambridge Learner Awards for 2020-21 as compared to 127 students last year. The global awards acknowledged student success in four categories - "Top in the World", "Top in Country", "High Achievement Award" and "Best Across Subjects". Out of 150 unique winners across the country, 11 winners are from Gujarat. From Gujarat, seven students have won "Top in Country", two students have won "High Achievement Award" and two students have won "Best Across subjects" awards. Altogether, 42 students in India scooped the highly coveted "Top in the World" award, which is awarded to students who achieve the highest marks in the world in a particular subject. In addition, 65 won the "Top in Country" award and 17 won the "Best across Subjects" award. (20-4)

Gruhas Proptech, Lumos Alternate Investment come together

Ahmedabad, Gruhas PropTech LLP, promoted by serial entrepreneur Mr. Abhijeet Pai and Zerodha's Co-founder Mr. Nikhil Kamath, joins Lumos Alternate Investment Advisors Private Limited (Lumos) as anchor investor and general partner. The joint venture Gruhas Lumos is in the process of raising Rs. 500 cr for a real estate fund focused on structured debt, last-mile funding, and opportunistic equity in real estate projects across major India cities. Mr. K. Rathi, founder of FirstBridge Capital Partners LLP and Mr. SS Asokan, Ex-Senior Director at Shriram Properties Limited, also join the Gruhas & Lumos board as co-founders. Commenting on the development, Mr. Abhijeet Pai Co-founder of Gruhas and Puzulano said "alternate investment in real estate will be a big opportunity in India given the requirement of capital in the real sector. Alternate investment platforms along with fintech can provide better opportunities to new aged investors for adjusted yield products. We are delighted to partner with highly experienced team that is having a remarkable track record of real estate fund management and real estate development." (1-7)

'MyFirstXP' launches in Ahmedabad

Ahmedabad, "MyFirstXP" is India's most advanced AI-ML led job guarantee program that will help individuals looking for internships or jobs secure a spot. Put together by Zolo, the category leader, and the largest co-living and student housing brand in India, MyFirstXP has already seen a lot of positive responses from Ahmedabad as soon as it went live today. Commenting on the new launch, Dr. Nikhil Sikri, CEO & Co-Founder, MyFirstXP said, "The pandemic has inspired us to create a platform which bridges the last-mile gap for students and working professionals in securing the right job. Due to less job contextuality and relevance, a significant number of people fail to get the job of their dreams. Others who want to shift streams find it even tougher. With MyFirstXP, we are hopeful that the first experiences of people would be a win-win situation for job aspirants and employers who hire them through our platform."
